Dear Colleagues,

The 18th European Congress of Psychiatry organised by the European Psychiatric Association (EPA) will take place at the International Congress Centre of Munich, Germany, from February 27 to March 2, 2010.

It will be our pleasure to welcome you to Munich, a city with a relationship of over one hundred years with psychiatry, represented by some of the most remarkable researchers and psychiatrists such as Emil Kraepelin and Alois Alzheimer and still hosting a very active psychiatric research scene. Munich is an appealing city, especially the old centre and the surrounding scenery of lakes and mountains. Munich is closely linked with art and culture.

EPA plans to offer you a high-quality, multidisciplinary scientific programme that will provide a full review of the most important aspects of diagnosis and treatment in psychiatry and of the latest achievements in this field. Under the motto “Improve the quality of psychiatric research and treatment in Europe”, as a tribute to the EPA inner mission in Europe, the congress highlights will include presentations by outstanding European and International experts in psychiatry.

The scientific programme will be composed of plenary lectures, symposia, workshops, a three-day integrated young psychiatrists’ programme and 13 CME courses, and will be completed by satellite symposia organised by leading pharmaceutical companies.

Clinicians and researchers of all generations are encouraged to become actively involved in the exchange of knowledge and experience by contributing to the scientific programme of our Congress. Attend workshops, lectures and CME courses, propose oral presentations, exhibit posters and enjoy interacting with your colleagues from all over Europe and beyond its borders!

We look forward to welcoming you to the beautiful city of Munich in 2010.

Hans-Jürgen Möller

ABOUT THE EUROPEAN PSYCHIATRIC ASSOCIATION

EPA TODAY

The European Psychiatric Association is the largest international association of psychiatrists in Europe, with active members in as many as 66 countries including the international members. Its members include leading experts, but also national and international psychiatric associations, covering the interests of psychiatry and mental health in academia, research and practice.

Since 1983, EPA has dealt with psychiatry and its related disciplines and focuses on the improvement of care for the mentally ill as well as on the development of professional excellence.

MISSION

The mission of EPA is to improve psychiatry and mental health care throughout Europe.

ACTIVITIES

EPA accomplishes its mission through the following activities:

• Annual European Congress of Psychiatry
• Corporate membership open to National and International Psychiatric Associations
• Annual European Platform of Psychiatrists, aimed at developing and supporting concrete projects in European Psychiatry, together with national and international psychiatric societies in Europe
• The European Psychiatry journal, published in 8 issues per year, plus supplements
• 18 sections, which collect, examine and disseminate information about their respective disciplines
• Organisation of EPA Academia CME courses across Europe
• Collaborative activities in partnership with international organisations working in the field of psychiatry and mental health care
• Regular EPA committee meetings in Europe, aiming at circulating information and implementing the action plan voted by the General Assembly composed of EPA members
• A wide range of grants and prizes
EPA PRIZES and AWARDS

The following prizes will be awarded as part of the 18th European Congress of Psychiatry. All application details are available on the EPA website www.europsy.net and on www.kenes.com/epa.

- Research Prizes
  Up to five Research Prizes of €2,500 each and free Congress registration will be awarded to young psychiatrists, who have published the best scientific papers in 2009.

- European BMS Prevention Award in Psychiatry
  Established to recognise distinguished research in the field of prevention in psychiatric disorders, including psychosis, depression, anxiety and dementia, this award amounting €20,000 will be allocated for scientific purposes at the winner's institution. The selected candidate will be invited to present his or her lecture during a 20 minutes session, at the official opening of the European Congress of Psychiatry.

- Best Poster Prizes
  The winners will be selected onsite and awarded €300 each.

- Scholarship Programme
  The EPA scholarship programme for Young Psychiatrists and Trainees will provide special grants (travel assistance, hotel accommodation for 4 nights, waived congress registration, complimentary registration for 1 CME Course, 1 year free EPA membership).

FUTURE EPA CONGRESSES

March 2011 - Vienna, Austria
March 2012 - Prague, Czech Republic
March 2013 - Nice, France

  European Board of Psychiatry

CME COURSE
• Managing Difficulties for Early Career Psychiatrists
  U. Volpe, Italy - Director
  N. Sartorius, Switzerland, J. Beezhold, UK and A. Fiorillo, Italy (Co-Directors)

In addition to the scientific sessions, the Young Psychiatrists Programme will offer the following benefits:
• Reduced Fees: for the Young Psychiatrists, Residents and Trainees.
• Young Psychiatrists’ Lounge: a special area, serving as a meeting point for networking and exchange of experience.
• Welcome Session for Young Psychiatrists: an integrated part of the general welcome session, followed by a reception, aimed to assist Young Psychiatrists in understanding the format of the congress and meant to offer an overview of the EPA’s history and activities.
• Young Psychiatrists Gathering: A special evening for Young Psychiatrists at a reduced cost.
• Scholarships Programme: The scholarship programme for Young Psychiatrists and Trainees is described in details in the section “EPA Prizes and Awards” of this booklet (Page 5).
ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

DEADLINE OF SUBMISSION: NOVEMBER 18, 2009

Abstracts must be submitted via the website: www.kenes.com/epa

- All accepted abstracts will be published on Science Direct, the electronic version of European Psychiatry, the Journal of the European Psychiatric Association, published by Elsevier Masson.
- The Congress Abstract CD-Rom will include plenary lectures, symposium abstracts, EPA Academia CME course descriptions and all accepted oral and poster presentations.
- Subscribers of the journal get the abstract CD inside their journal of that month.
- Only abstracts of authors who have paid their registration fees by December 2, 2009 will be scheduled and included in the Abstract CD-Rom.
- The Local Organising Committee will review the submitted abstracts. Information regarding acceptance, and scheduling will be sent to the corresponding author.

ABSTRACT TYPES

FREE COMMUNICATION SESSIONS

Authors are invited to submit abstracts, classified by topics. Submitted abstracts will be reviewed by the Local Organising Committee and scheduled as oral or poster presentations.

POSTERS

Authors are invited to present their new research findings or important ongoing research as posters related to one of the 27 given topics. There is no limitation concerning the number of presented posters. The most interesting posters will be combined by topics and will participate in the poster walks.

Congress and Abstract Submission Topics can be found on page 7 of this booklet and listed in the abstract submission form online at www.kenes.com/epa
GREEN SOCIETY

The European Psychiatric Association is dedicated to taking personal and active responsibility for our effect on the environment. EPA is committed to integrating new practices in its head office, congresses and promotional activities that will reflect our ethos for change and eco-conscience. We believe that as a continental society EPA has a voice and a responsibility not only to act but also to spread the message to our members and colleagues.

GREEN MEETING

EPA and appointed congress organiser Kenes International are devoted to considering environmentally friendly practice at the European Congress of Psychiatry and in all of our operations. Our responsibility to our congress participants, staff, environment and society is paramount in all of our decisions, policies and practices. We continue to learn and strive to integrate new practices all the time. At present, here are a few of the practices we have undertaken for EPA 2010:

• Promotional materials (including this brochure) are being printed on paper that is PEFC approved. The PEFC is an organization that certifies paper manufacturers which keep to sustainable forest management criteria.
• Reduced plastic registration envelopes.
• Name tags at congresses can be deposited when participants leave the meeting and these will be re-used.
• At the congress we will recycle plastic, glass, cans and paper.
• Environmentally conscious offices (amongst other things, we recycle all our waste, including organic waste for compost, integrated energy saving fixtures throughout the building and use only recycled paper).

GREEN PARTICIPANTS

Offset your Carbon Footprint - You can contribute to our ecological efforts by offsetting the Carbon Footprint of your travels to EPA 2010. A Carbon Offset represents a reduction in emissions somewhere else - like a wind farm in Texas or a reforestation project in Nicaragua - to balance out the emissions you cannot reduce. You can learn more and offset you carbon foot print at: www.carbonfund.org
